

Wolf Creek - Berger Ditch Restoration Plan
Maumee Bay State Park Lodge
November 4, 2010 6:30-8:30 PM
Agenda

6:30 Poster Session

Displays of posters on Maumee Bay; questions and discussions with Project Management Team members

- City of Oregon: Wolf Creek, sanitary sewers, stormwater management
- Hull & Associates: Wetland systems — different types, how they work, how they protect the environment
- ODNR: Features of Maumee Bay State Park, educational programs, habitat, beach activities
- TMACOG: Wolf Creek Committee's work leading up to wetlands to bacteria control
- UT Lake Erie Center: bacteria and wetland studies at Maumee Bay State Park, economic impact

7:15 Wolf Creek Committee: History and Goals

Kurt Erichsen, TMACOG

7:30 Wetland and Pathogen Research at Maumee Bay State Park

Dr. Kristopher Barnswell, UT Lake Erie Center

7:45 A Wetland System to Control Bacteria

William Petruzzi, PG - Hull & Associates
Hugh Crowell, PWS - Hull & Associates

8:00 Discussion and Questions

Comment Cards

Members of the public are invited to continue discussing posters with Wolf Creek Committee members. Comment/question cards are available, and may be left with any committee member.

8:30 Adjourn

The full Wolf Creek - Berger Ditch Corridor Restoration Plan is available online at www.tmacog.org – click on the What's Hot button