

TMACOG Member Benefits

TMACOG Members Form Strong Regional Partnerships

- State and federal grants favor regionally significant projects. Leverage your influence by expanding your partnership options.

On-going Collaboration and Information Sharing

- Members who work together throughout the year on cooperative plans build trust and confidence in each other. Those relationships are invaluable when a crisis occurs.
- When faced with a new regulation or personnel challenge in your jurisdiction, the chances are good that a fellow member has faced a similar problem. Get advice in a peer-to-peer environment.
- Learn about sources of funding for repair and renovation through TMACOG communications.

Decision-making Councils and Committees

- Members are encouraged to serve on a council or committee where they will have influence in planning and policy decisions.

Access to TMACOG Staff and Data

- Contact TMACOG's professional planners for advice and strategy.
- Access TMACOG reports for information on traffic, construction, Census data, water treatment sharing agreements, maps, and more.

Education and Member-only Opportunities

- TMACOG Tech seminars offer professional development for elected officials.
- Meet with state lawmakers at TMACOG-sponsored events.

Annual Directory of Public Officials

All members of TMACOG receive an annually updated directory with contact information for elected and appointed officials in northwest Ohio and southeast Michigan, including email addresses, phone numbers, titles, and more.
